

Week 3: Myrrh – The Gift for the Savior

- Everyone is _____.
- _____ is what we are _____ for.

This is why Jesus is the mediator of the new covenant: through His death, He delivered us from the sins that we had built up under the first covenant, and His death has made it possible for all who are called to receive God's promised inheritance. For whenever there is a testament—a will—the death of the one who made it must be confirmed because a will takes effect only at the death of its maker; it has no validity as long as the maker is still alive. Even the first testament—the first covenant—required blood to be put into action.

Hebrews 9:15-18 (VOICE)

...Jesus Christ rescued us from this evil world we're in by offering himself as a sacrifice for our sins. God's plan is that we all experience that rescue. Glory to God forever!...

Galatians 1:4:5 (MSG)

And Christ lives within you, so even though your body will die because of sin, the Spirit gives you life because you have been made right with God. The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you.

Romans 8:10-11 (NLT)

- What am I _____ today that Jesus set me _____ from?

You no longer have to live as a slave because you are a child of God. And since you are His child, God guarantees an inheritance is waiting for you.

Galatians 4:7 (VOICE)

“Truly I tell you,” he said, “unless you turn and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Matthew 18:3 (CSB)

Discussion Questions

1. When you think about having faith like a child, what comes to mind?
2. What is something you've been carrying that you want to hand over to God?
