

Week #1 - Serve: DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Describe a heavy burden you've had to carry in the past or are currently carrying. Are these concerns of a personal nature, for someone else, for your neighborhood/city? How have you responded or addressed these burdens?
2. What things about our city concern you that you could be praying about? Are there issues that God has given you a burden for? How can you plan for the opportunity you may get to address those issues?
3. In what ways can you participate in service to your neighborhood block, your kids' schools, and civic organizations during this season?

Additional Recommended Resources

- Visions of Vocation: Common Grace for the Common Good, by Steven Garber
- The Art of Neighboring: Building Genuine Relationships Right Outside Your Door, by Jay Pathak and Dave Runyon

Week #1 - Serve: DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Describe a heavy burden you've had to carry in the past or are currently carrying. Are these concerns of a personal nature, for someone else, for your neighborhood/city? How have you responded or addressed these burdens?
2. What things about our city concern you that you could be praying about? Are there issues that God has given you a burden for? How can you plan for the opportunity you may get to address those issues?
3. In what ways can you participate in service to your neighborhood block, your kids' schools, and civic organizations during this season?

Additional Recommended Resources

- Visions of Vocation: Common Grace for the Common Good, by Steven Garber
- The Art of Neighboring: Building Genuine Relationships Right Outside Your Door, by Jay Pathak and Dave Runyon